Richmond Hill

The Smart Place for Business

World-Class Innovation.
Local Collaboration.
Leading Business.

Economic Development

Expertise and Innovation.

The Professional, Scientific and Technical Service sectors are strong and growing in Richmond Hill. With business community members such as Open Text, Compugen, Compuware, FlexITy, Lexmark, N-Dimension, PCI Geomatics, Subex, Visual Defence, Xenos, CiRBA, Illumiti, Intertainment, and Solarsoft, Richmond Hill is part of Canada's largest tech cluster.

Computer systems design is a specific area of strength in Richmond Hill. From small consulting firms to large multi-nationals, Richmond Hill offers an internationally educated and highly skilled workforce, prime business locations and opportunities to network and grow locally and internationally.

The Richmond Hill Economic Development team is able to help sector members establish and grow their businesses through custom events, networking opportunities and one-to-one business consultation and advice. We set the stage for mutually beneficial partnerships and programs creating synergies for stronger business.

As part of the York Region technology cluster, businesses that make Richmond Hill home can also take advantage of the Ontario Centre of Excellence, sector-specific associations and peer groups.

Businesses in Richmond Hill benefit from the unique combination of a world renowned community, resilient economy and cutting edge locally-developed technology.

Richmond Hill is a recognized leader with:

- the most educated workforce in Canada (according to the 2006 Canadian Census)
- a fourth place ranking in fDi Magazine's (UK) list of the Top 10 American Small Cities of the Future
- one of the six most attractive cities in Canada as ranked by the Conference Board of Canada's 2010 City Magnets II report

In this community, companies large and small are well supported which leads to a strong economy in Richmond Hill and a competitive advantage on the Canadian, North American and global stage.

Through the hundreds of knowledge-based creative economy entrepreneurs that call Richmond Hill home, innovation abounds. As part of the regional technology cluster, and with access to Canada's top universities and research institutions, Richmond Hill offers a vibrant, innovative and connected business community.

Our Economic Development team can help new and existing businesses grow and prosper through assistance with site selection, regulatory processes, information and research, small business support and partnership connections, and facilitation.

Richmond Hill

Richmond Hill is the perfect location for business with exceptional transportation links, a highly-educated workforce, a dynamic Economic Development support team and a diverse and welcoming community.

Richmond Hill: The right home for your business.

Richmond Hill

The Smart Place for Business

Contact the Richmond Hill Economic Development team.

We can help you find the right home for your business.

ecdev@richmondhill.ca

T 905 771 5483 / 905 747 6382

BusinessRichmondHill.ca